DETAILED ACTION

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 9, and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuss'004. Fuss discloses a tree-top mounting device comprising a housing (20, fig. 2), an elongated support (18) slidably received within the housing, a lock (21, figure 3) to secure the sliding support (18) within the housing, a fitting head (socket 30, fig. 4) disposed at a distal end of elongated support and a fastener (22) adapted to secure the housing to the tree; a fitting head includes coupling means (30) comprising a disc (fig. 4) and a cylindrical connector (30, fig. 4).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claims 3 and 10 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuss'004 in view of Gladsden et al'270 as discussed in the previous Office Action.

Claim 5 stands rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuss'004 in view of Aldridge'098 as discussed in the previous Office Action.

R sponse to Argum nts

Applicant's arguments filed 3/14/2002 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's argument that the rod 18 is freely slidable and without locking member to lock the rod within the tubular member 24 or previously equated as the housing in examiner's previous Office action is moot in view of examiner's new grounds of rejection. As discussed above, examiner equates the housing as the cylindrical coupler (20, figure 3) and the fastener (21) prevents the rod (18) from sliding within the coupler 20 when it is tightened.

Applicant's arguments with respect to all pending claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
